Headline:
Dry and bright.

Today:
Generally dry with bright or sunny spells and feeling quite pleasant with light winds, although cloudier in the far north and northeast where some isolated light showers may develop.

Tonight:
A fine end to the day across much of the country with bright or sunny spells. Variable cloud cover overnight with some clear skies. Showers possible around the west coast.

Tuesday:
Bright with occasional sunny spells. A few showers around the west coast at first, these developing more widely during the day.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
A mainly dry start on Wednesday and Thursday, but showers developing, these heavy and perhaps thundery at times. The showers lighter and more scattered on Friday with some sunny spells.
